

Design your own Tartan Cloth

Woollen fabrics like the Falkirk one would have been made into cloaks, trousers, dresses and shirts by the local people. Here's a drawing of what a local chieftain might have looked like wearing a cloak made from the Falkirk tartan.

Would you like to wear something made from this fabric?
How would you wear your tartan?

Use the box below to design an outfit (for the chieftain or for yourself) using the tartan fabric you have just designed.
